

Four new PDP agreements

Engineers Australia national president Professor Andrew Downing recently signed four new professional development program (PDP) agreements in two days. The agreements were signed in NSW on 19 and 20 July with Hyder Consulting, Stephen Grubits & Associates, Perfect Engineering and Tyree Holdings.

Hyder Consulting renewed its national PDP agreement with Engineers Australia at its offices in North Sydney. The agreement was signed by Jeff Mouldsdale, director of civil engineering (NSW), and John Prineas, regional human resources manager. The engineering and environmental services consultancy is part of an international group with offices in New Zealand, Asia, Europe and the Middle East.

Stephen Grubits & Associates chairman Stephen Grubits signed his company's new PDP agreement in Sydney. The company offers a range of specialist consulting services in fire safety engineering, code compliance and risk management.

The new PDP agreement with Perfect Engineering was signed by the company's managing director George Melhem in Ryde. Perfect Engineering specialises in the design, manufacture and supply of special purpose machinery and steel fabrication.

Peter Tyree, Tyree Holdings chairman, signed his company's PDP agreement in Mittagong. The privately owned and operated business manufactures and distributes electrical products and services.

National President Andrew Downing signs a PDP agreement with Tyree Holdings chairman Peter Tyree.

Andrew Downing and Hyder Consulting's regional human resources manager John Prineas celebrate the renewal of Hyder's PDP agreement with Engineers Australia.

The managing director of Perfect Engineering George Melhem celebrates his firm's new PDP agreement with Andrew Downing.

The chairman of consultant Stephen Grubits & Associates celebrates his firm's new PDP agreement with Andrew Downing.

Lloyd's List DCN
EVENTS

presents

Victorian Infrastructure Summit 2005

Examining priorities, planning and investment to cater for future growth

Monday 17th & Tuesday 18th October 2005
Le Meridian at Rialto, Melbourne

Key Contributions

Bruce Mildenhall MP, Parliamentary Secretary to the Premier and Member for Footscray

Robert Doyle MP, Leader of the Opposition

www.informa.com.au/vicinfrastructure05

(+61 2) 9080 4307

(+61 2) 9290 3844

registration@informa.com.au